INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL REQUEST

Mr. Ancelmo Dawsey is requesting permission to travel internationally to Panama City, Panama, to attend the funeral services for his brother. According to Mr. Dawsey, his brother was tragically murdered in a case of mistaken identity on June 26, 2024. He intends to travel to Panama City, Panama, with his husband and his mother from July 4, 2024, to July 20, 2024.

Since the commencement of supervised release on December 20, 2023, Mr. Dawsey has taken significant steps in his reintegration back into the community; specifically, he secured full-time employment, working numerous hours as an Uber and Lyft driver, reporting as instructed, testing negative for all controlled substances, completing his 4-month location monitoring condition, and maintaining a stable residence. With respect to his outstanding financial obligations, the Court ordered Mr. Dawsey to satisfy a special assessment in the amount of $100.00, which he has fulfilled. The undersigned officer has determined that the purpose of the trip outweighs any identifiable risk, and because Mr. Dawsey is generally compliant with the conditions of his supervised release, the U.S. Probation Office has no objection to the travel request.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
